County Men Victims Of I. H. C. Explosion

The terrific explosion that occurred at the International Harvester Co. plant Monday morning struck terror to the hearts of members of many households in the County. Many of the I.H.C. employees came from all sections of the County, and when the report of the explosion was broadcast, reaching these homes, from some of which there were representatives coming off the night shift or going on the day, there was consternation.

Two of the four victims killed outright were: William E. Stillwell, R. L. Buechel, and William C. Manion, all of whom were on the injured list. Included in the injured list are: Melvin Hawes, Jeffersontown; Newman C. Clarkson, Manly; George H. Enright, Buechel; Wylder W. Harris, Arden; Monte Washington; E. E. Gentry; M. Washington; Arthur T. Meredith, Buechel and William Ivory, Buechel.

Although badly burnt on the face and hands, Melvin Hawes is recovering nicely. He is receiving treatment at Norton inpatient hospital.

BAPTIST SPEAKER

Rev. John E. Huss, the dynamic leader of the HOUR OF POWER, one of the greatest mid-week Prayer Services in the South, will be guest speaker at the Long Run Association Training Union Meeting on March 23, 7:45 p.m. at the Walnut Street Baptist Church.

Dr. Huss, pastor of the Latonia Baptist Church, Cincinnati, will speak on the subject, "Follow Me in Taking Men Alive." Members from each of the 77 Baptist Churches and 17 missions are expected at this meeting, and visitors are cordially invited. The Young People's Choir of the Parkland Baptist Church will render special music.

Christian Church Holds Candlelight Communion

A candlelight communion service will be held at Jeffersontown Christian Church, Thursday evening, March 25 at 7:30 p.m.

JUDGE BARKER, VOLUNTEER FIRE FIGHTERS IN SQUAD

It appears, from the reverberations throughout the County during the past week, that the wrangling between the organized volunteer firemen and County Judge Horace Barker continue to go places but get no where in particular. It is evident that a publicly supported fire fighting force and local volunteer organizations just can't get along together.

Judging from what has been happening recently and continuing clashes between the Volunteer Firefighters' organization and public authorities, particularly Judge Barker, the County's entire scale of fire fighting facilities is likely to be thrown into a state of confusion. Much comment is now going the rounds relative to the lack of harmony observed during the past several months between the different agencies, which appear incompatible.

The public has begun to wonder what the new situation adds up to. Most people have a good word for the volunteers, and give them credit for doing a good job. The big question is, who can do a better job, with the thousands of dollars of public funds now being poured into the establishing and maintenance of a paid fire department.

The most recent developments came out of the Fiscal Court's action voting to allow a representative of the volunteers to sit in meetings of officials of the County Fire Department and the County Fire Department and the County Fire Department and the County Fire Department.

East Sunrise Service At Cedar Springs Church

Young people of Cedar Springs Church of Christ are sponsoring a sunrise service East morning at 6:30.

Economist Study Farmer Operations

Analyzing the financial phases of successful operations on their own farms is one of the major ways in which management principles are being made available by the farm management studies of the Department of Agricultural Economics of the College of Agriculture, University of Kentucky, as described by Dr. W. D. Nicholson, head of that department.

"The spotting of successful farms and learning the reason for their success is one of the duties of myself and my capable men associated with me," said Dr. Nicholson. "Since 1914 we have been examining the organization and management of farms in every important agricultural section of Kentucky. Many farms of every kind and description have been visited and studied, as well as farms beyond the state lines."

"Trucking down the farm, talking with their operators, checking on their organization and management have become a personal hobby with me. I have improved many an opportunity in eating a meal or spending a night with farmers and their families in this work."

"I believe there is no better way to get the 'low-down' on farming questions than to find out how successful farmers have solved them. I can testify from my personal experience that this is just as true in Denmark, Switzerland and Germany as it is in Michigan, Pennsylvania or Kentucky."

FUNERAL RITES THURSDAY FOR MRS. JENNYE WHEELER

The funeral of Mrs. Jennie Wheeler, age 86, was conducted from the residence at 1628 Fernwood Avenue, Louisville, Thursday morning at 10 o'clock in Cave Hill Cemetery, Mrs. Wheeler, widow of the late Chesley Wheeler, died at her home Tuesday evening.

The only survivors are a number of cousins, nieces and nephews.

Rev. Frank O. Tafel Easter Sunrise Speaker

Announcement just made of the Easter Sunrise Service at Jeffersontown states that the speaker will be the Rev. Frank O. Tafel, pastor of Fern Memorial Lutheran Church. The service is held under the auspices of the local Christian Endeavor Society.

The sunrise service will again be held this year at Christ Lutheran Church, beginning at 6:30, with the public being invited to attend.

County Agent Warns Against March Fires

Beware the Ideas of March if you want to keep your farm property from going up in flames, County Agent, S. W. Anderson, warned today.

Mr. Anderson cited figures released by the Fire Protection Institute to indicate that March is the worst month of the year in terms of fire losses. And losses this year may reach new highs.

"More than $72,430,000 worth of property in this country was destroyed by fire during March of last year. Based on Department of Agriculture calculations, approximately 14 million of the one-month loss occurred on America's Farms."

"In spite of fire prevention efforts, the fire loss totals continue to mount. During the month of January, for example, fire losses were $10,000,000 over totals for the same period a year ago. This is a serious threat to the farmer, to the consumer who depends on his products and to the entire national economy."

"Fire losses can be reduced through a simple program of prevention and protection," Mr. Anderson declared.

"The complicated nature of the fire hazards and using common sense to prevent fires," said Mr. Anderson. "And there's nothing complicated about getting the best approved fire extinguishers and spotting them at strategic points on the farm, every against the time when an unpreventable fire breaks out. It takes only five minutes to do this. Today's farmer can't afford not to have sound fire-fighting equipment."

HOMEMAKERS

Fifteen members of the Jeffersontown Homemakers' Club met on Tuesday, March 16th at 10:30 with Mrs. Roy Breuninger.

Mrs. Seaga and Mrs. Cauffman gave a very interesting talk on the color of the home. Much valuable information on landscaping was given by Mrs. F. J. Plann.

Announcement was made of the District meeting to be held April 24, 10 to 3 at Shawnee High School.

4-H CLUB CHAMPIONS

Over County April 5

On Monday, April 5, county government officials will vacate their offices in favor of teenagers. On that day a boy or girl will take over the duties of the county judge, the three commissioners, the county attorney and the county school board.

These teenagers, coming from the 13 teen-age clubs of the Jefferson County Playground and Recreation Board, will in turn make appointments to county officials. The school board members will appoint a county school superintendent; the county judge will appoint a Jefferson County Playground and Recreation Board, which will then appoint a recreation director and assistant director. Everybody filling the offices will be teenagers.

Each teen-age club of the county will nominate one member for (a) county judge, (b) three commissioners, (c) county attorney, (d) school board members. Then each club will start a concerted membership drive to round up as many teen-agers as their clubs as possible, so as to have the largest potential voting power.

Local Methodists Enter Second Week of Revival

With almost a week of inspiring evangelistic messages concluded, the Jeffersontown Methodist Church, the pastor, Rev. W. F. Huddleston announces his hope for the second week of the revival as follows:

Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, "Palms of Victory," Sunday evening at 7:45, "Cause and Effect" or "Why Men Go On in Sin," Monday through Friday, consecutively "Sin and Consequences," "Truth and Consequences."

"When is a Name Written in the Lamb's Book of Life?" What One Has to Do to Be Lost" and "The Glory of the Cross."

Aside from the evening service a three-hour communion service will be held at the church Friday from 3 to 6 p.m. Observed during the hours Christ suffered on the cross, the Lord's Supper will be partaken of by all who come during that time. Persons may come and go at their convenience.

Sermon subjects for the final days of the meeting will be announced later.

Fishing Season Is Just Around The Corner

The fishing season is definitely upon us. Last week Earl Wallace, Director of the Division of Game and Fish, purchased his annual fishing license. As is his custom the director ambled over to Gay Washburn's to get his license.

Very few complimentary licenses are given by the Division

According to the State Game and Fish Division, and planked down one dollar for fishing privileges, and by this the office force knew that the fishing season was just around the corner. All members of the Division force purchase licenses just as do other fishermen in Kentucky.

R. A. Powell Dies Suddenly At M'town

Robert Archie Powell, 71, was found dead in bed at his home in Middletown last Friday morning, March 12.

Although in ill health for more than two years, he was still active about his home duties and upon a recent visit to his physician, seemed somewhat improved. He was a deacon in Middletown Christian Church where funeral services were conducted Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial was in Resthaven Cemetery.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Raymond La Von Marysville, Ind., and Misses Yvelyn and Bernadine Powell, who made their home with their father, two brothers, Leonard Crum Powell, Crestwood and Marshall Powell, McComb, Ill.; two sisters, Mrs. Weaver Spier, Jeffersontown, and Mrs. Thomas Wise, St. Matthews; also two grandchildren.

Fun Night Planned At Jeffersontown

Mark your calendars for Tuesday night, March 23 at the Jeffersontown Junior High School. There will be a big Fun Night sponsored by the Jeffersontown Area Recreation Council.

According to an announcement by E. J. Willis, recreation chairman, there is a gigantic program planned which will be great for the whole family. This big recreation rally, just prior to the beginning of the planning for the Jeffersontown playground this year, will be a big fun night.

There'll be movies in color showing the film "Playtown" which shows what the playground could have in the way of recreation with all people getting behind the project and pulling for the wholesome recreation of our youngsters.

Charles Vettiner, director of the Jefferson County Playground and Recreation Board will be on hand along with members of the Fiscal Court, Board of Education and members of the Recreation Board. Following the movie, a picnic will be held at the playground.

HE'LL MAKE IT, ONE STEP AT A TIME

Jimmie Frederick of Miami, Fla. called in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. McMahon Sunday evening, Tuesday morning he and a friend left for Alaska.

Local Papermen's

There shall be no end to the Kingdom of the Papermen. The papermen of the world are united in a common purpose to make the world a better place to live in.

Fisher Pledged To U. K. Service Fraternity

William W. Fisher, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Fisher, Taylorville, Ky., has been formally pledged to Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, at the University of Kentucky.

The purpose of the organization is a four-fold program—service to the students and University faculty, to the youth and community, to the members of the community, and to the nation as fully participating citizens.

Fisher, a graduate of Jeffersontown High School, is a senior at the College of Arts and Sciences at the University and is a member of Phi Kappa Alpha social fraternity, Phi Kappa Alpha social fraternity, Phi Kappa Alpha social fraternity, and the YMCA.

Fern Creek Resident Taken Sun. By Death

An electrical contractor at Fern Creek, Elliott L. Hornbeck, 34, died Sunday morning, March 12, at his home in Fern Creek.

His wife, Mrs. Marie Hornbeck, and three children, Mrs. Margaret Blinn and Mrs. Nettie Dowell, three brothers, Earl, O. J. and Martin Hornbeck, were at the home at the time of his death.

Funeral services were held at 11 a.m. Tuesday from McFay Funeral Home and interment was in Resthaven Cemetery.

The newly appointed teen-age council of Jefferson County will have a full day arranged for them and they will be asked to take over the government and to recommend improvements at the close of their day in office that would be the means of making teen-agers in Jefferson County more contented people possible.

By promoting the program of "Teen-Agers Take Over County Day" the Jefferson County Playground and Recreation Board hopes to inculcate in the minds of the young people proper attitudes toward politics and government and to make them aware of their part in such a scheme. This idea is to be carried out subject to approval of the Fiscal Court and Board of Education.

Pre-Easter Services At Buechel Pres. Church

The Buechel Presbyterian Church is conducting a series of pre-Easter services. Each evening, March 14-18, 7:45 p.m., Rev. W. R. Laws, Jr., pastor of the church has been bringing the messages.

For Palm Week, March 16, Dr. Kenneth J. Foreman, professor of Systematic Theology at the Presbyterian Seminary in Louisville, will be the guest minister. Dr. Foreman has a wide reputation as a forceful and thoughtful speaker and writer.

He is a regular contributor to the "Presbyterian Outlook," a church magazine published in Richmond, Virginia. He is in great demand as a lecturer and preacher.

Jefferson Farmers Get Soil Conservation Practices Underway

With the obvious approach of spring and plowing time comes again plans by Jefferson County farmers who are cooperating with the Soil Conservation District authorities, looking toward establishing conservation practices.

Soil Conservation District

Since land capabilities differ widely from farm to farm, each farm unit requires its own individual treatment, says the soil conservation specialists. And the plans being developed, as well as practices observed in seasons past, indicate that they are right.

Among the new projects being planned in the county for this season is that of Dr. Paul Bent, Alton Road, who expects to terrace a field this spring, seed perennials in grasses and legumes and construct a fish pond.

Ernest Schanberger, whose place is in the Tucker Station, says that he is much pleased with the conservation plans being developed for him by the agricultural engineers and the Soil Conservation District. Said

Dr. Trawick Former- Co. Health Director Dies

At noon Monday came the close of a wide career of public service for a prominent figure in medical circles, when one of Jefferson County's leading citizens passed away. It was Dr. John D. Trawick, formerly a director of health in the County, who passed away peacefully at St. Joseph's Infirmary.

The 74-year old physician had suffered severe burns at his home in Audubon Park in the early fall, when gasoline was accidentally spilled on his clothes and was ignited by the pilot light of a water heater. A prominent Methodist layman, he had done medical missionary work in China and had served in World War I, giving special attention to the treatment of war gases.

Surviving Dr. Trawick are his son, Dr. John D. Trawick, Jr., daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Kellum, two brothers, Dr. A. M. Trawick, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Spartanburg, S. C., and Arch Trawick, Nashville, and one sister, Mrs. C. C. Trawick.

The funeral was at Pearson's Tuesday afternoon and burial was in Cave Hill Cemetery.

YOUNG CANDIDATE

MILTON TINSLEY WHITE, worth, President, Young Democratic Club of Kentucky and a member of the Kentucky Bar, is a candidate for the office of Attorney General in the upcoming election.

Mr. White is a member of the Young Men's Christian Association and has been active in many community organizations.

He is a graduate of the University of Kentucky and has been employed by the State of Kentucky for many years.

Mrs. Carl Schwab Heads Local P.T.A.

Mrs. Carl Schwab was named president of the Jefferson County Teachers Association at the regular meeting held Thursday at the school. Mrs. A. Bishop was elected to the office of treasurer.

Other votes resulted in the reelection of Mrs. James F. McCreary as vice president, and Mrs. Carl Winkler as secretary.

These officers will be installed at the P.T.A. meeting of the organization.

Sweet Clover Found Best Soil Builder

In an experiment that has been in progress for more than 20 years at the Agricultural Experiment Station at Princeton, sweet clover has increased soil productivity more than any other legume.

JEFFERSONIAN

ESTABLISHED JUNE 1907 — AN INDEPENDENT COUNTY NEWSPAPER

Vol. 41 No. 44

JEFFERSONTOWN, KY., FRIDAY, MARCH 19, 1948

Jefferson County's HOME NEWSPAPER

40 YEARS AGO

SPRING 1908

In the issue of Thursday, March 19, forty years ago, Gentle Spring was a leading topic of discussion in The Jeffersonian, and the celebration of St. Patrick's Day. The ground hog was reported restless and there were indications that winter was completely over. The harsh winds were still blowing but late snow was all gone and hope was expressed that there would be no danger to fruit crops.

"J. R. Z." writing from Shepherdsville, recalled boyhood days, when he "caught minnows, rocked Yellow Jacket's nests, and had nothing to do but play." Everybody in his neighborhood was waiting on the weather. "We are ready for Spring," he remarked. "We have things and things to do when the weather gets settled," he wrote. "There are greens to gather and places to visit" he added. "When the bees hum around you and the blue birds warble in innocent glee, it does a fellow a whole lot of good, in early Spring, to go out walking with himself. Those of us who spent our early days on the farm, know something of Spring. To me, in those days," JRZ assures, "the whole world was a big garden of flowers, abloom and beautiful, and the prettiest and best was mother. In later days we helped to crown many fair queens of May, but mother was queen all the year around."

In the voting context, rapidly drawing to a close, "The Most Popular Lady in Jefferson County" was in the balance. In a field narrowed down to ten, Miss Caruth Nicholson of Pleasantville, was second with 11,800 votes. St. Patrick's Day was celebrated at St. Matthews, Mrs. Henry Frank, among others, entering into the color scheme. Green candy frogs were among the souvenirs and at each plate set on a long table was a hand painted menu card displaying the Shamrock. Candelabras with green shades cast a soft glow over the table which had an appropriate centerpiece. There was Irish wit, recitations and songs as the story of St.

Patrick, the patron saint, was told. Mrs. F. L. Schneider writes an interesting item from Evansville, Ind. Describing herself as a Kentuckian "now abiding in Hoosier Land," she comments that Mrs. Marcia Oliver will stay with Mrs. Hart while Mrs. Jones is away. So glad to see Rogers Newman back to Sunday School.

the day was enjoyable and profitable. Dr. and Mrs. T. D. Price and little family concluded their visit here Friday, and Mrs. L. P. Jones accompanied them home. Mrs. Marcia Oliver will stay with Mrs. Hart while Mrs. Jones is away. So glad to see Rogers Newman back to Sunday School.

Rev. M. B. May Announces Special Easter Services

The Rev. Marcum B. May announces the following services preparatory to Easter. On Palm Sunday morning at 10:45 in the Mt. Washington Methodist Church the sermon subject will be, "King or Dictator?" followed in the evening at 7:30 by the fifth sermon in a series based on "The Apostles' Creed with the subject 'I Believe in the Forgiveness of Sins.' On Tuesday night at the Bethel Methodist Church on the Shepherdsville Road the subject will be, "Eager for the Cloth," and the Lord's Supper will be observed. On Wednesday evening at the Mt. Washington Church the pastor will preach on the subject, "All out for Christ," and the following evening at the same place Youth Night will be observed and the sermon subject will be, "Our Pattern."

For the Good Friday evening service at the Mt. Washington church, the Rev. M. B. May has invited to partake of the Lord's Supper and the sermon will be, "Is It Nothing to You?" These services are planned to prepare the mind and heart for a blessed Easter Day which will be celebrated by the church at 10 a. m. and evening worship services. Easter services will be announced in this paper next week.

SMOKE RINGS

By Charlie Ventresca

Tryn' a new brand of tobacco today—Art Shacklette and some like the aroma of the other weed so it's long green old Smoke's lighting up today.

A brand new pipe, brand new tobacco and a big puff of smoke goes to E. J. Willis, chairman of the Jeffersontown Area Recreation Council.

The new recreation chairman is "On the Ball" and says that he is going to go all out to get recreation building at J'town such as Nelson Hornback and his Fairdale Committee got at Faindale.

Here's a chap who's O. K. — "Burt," as E. J. Willis is known to his friends, has long been a crusader for youth. Many long hours of his own time has he devoted to making things better for other people's children.

For this reason Smoke Ringer's "Pipe of the Week" award goes to this civic-minded fellow who is succeeding Mrs. Ann Krigger as recreation chairman of J'Town.

Ann Krigger's work at J'Town was tremendous—one of the outstanding recreation jobs done in the county last year was done by this fine lady. Smoke wishes Ann and Marshall God Speed in their new business venture in the Now let's get back to the thing Burt Willis is planning for next Tuesday, March 23 at 7:30 p.m. at the J'Town High School.

If you fail to bring out all of your friends and neighbors you'll miss something you'll always wish you had never missed.

Your old Smoke friend will be on hand to explain the recreation summer set and then there'll be color movies, fiscal court and board of education members program for the whole family.

It's all free — it's your big recreation rally—it's your chance to get behind a big recreation project for your community. Smoke's gonna be looking for you there.

H. J. Priestley, who supervises the fall, winter and spring program recreation at J'Town for your Jefferson County Playground and Recreation Board is pulling for a "Bunker" crowd and you can bet Herschel will have it there—so come early.

"Town can get ready to be hosts to some of the recreation-minded friends from Anchorage because you can bet Clark Atkins will bring out a big crowd of fun under any play recreation program. There's gonna be a week's camping for every boy or girl who plays on one of Jefferson County's playgrounds this summer.

Is your boy or girl gonna get this advantage—it's up to you to get that playground in great shape for recreation. Let your friend "Burt" Willis Tuesday night so your children can get in on the summer's camping program too.

squadron. Planning and directing parties; providing callers and money for square dances, leading group games, providing entertainment for banquets are a few of the activities taken care of in this manner.

Any church group, civic group, PTA organization, improvement club, community club, women's club, in fact any organization other than private parties and individuals are eligible for this flying squadron service and the beauty of it is that this service is free.

Flying squadrons are being used continuously by certain groups, but the recreation department feels that other groups do not know of this service and, consequently, have not made use of it.

For information on these squadrons call the Recreation Board at the Army the next time you people of Jefferson County want to have a square dance, have a party, give a dance or a club entertainment.

It's CONTROL

THAT COUNTS!

It takes a pretty neat touch to keep that little white ball on the table . . . and it takes plenty of control to build a gasoline as good as Phillips 66, too!

The trick we use is to control the blending of the high-quality components that go into Phillips 66 to fit your driving needs in hot weather or cold!

Give your car a break with Phillips 66 Gasoline next time. The proof's in the performance!

Farm Bureau News From County, State and Nation

Hen Has Something To Crow About

If the cackle of a hen—or she has laid an egg, the poultry yards of America are noisier places than they used to be. In

CLEANER EGGS

You can get cleaner eggs the January, and the more clean eggs you get, the more you profit.

January's Farm Bureau Clean Eggs Contest is the best time to buy. Proof of this is found in the fact that have will have wood-burned and shall be given to January's Metal Nest.

If you don't have January's Metal Nest in your poultry house, by all means install one now. Give your hens their well earned freedom from filthy robbing live and safe.

Here's Proof That Dirt Is A Light Thief

The ten years from 1936 to 1946 the average egg production of layers in the U.S. increased from 121 eggs a year to 155, says the U.S. Department of Agriculture. This is an increase of more than 26 per cent.

The National Poultry Improvement plant got under way on a national scale in 1936, and is to be credited with a large share in the improvement which the egg production records reveal, says the Bureau of Animal Industry.

In 1936 there were 1,017 hatcheries operating under the NPIP. In 1947 the number was 4,498. The egg capacity of the hatcheries under the NPIP was 38 million in 1936 and 226 million in 1946, or nearly two-thirds of the total hatchery capacity.

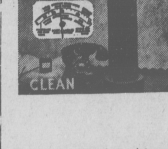

A notable result of operations under the NPIP has been a 50 per cent decline in the incidence of pullorum disease reactions—from 2.6 per cent in 1936 to 1.34 in 1946.

State Women Improve Farm Entrances

In line with the state-wide homemakers program of improving farm entrances by having gates in good condition, making painting and painting the names of farms on mail boxes, many homemakers in Mason county have told Mrs. Agent Sidney E. Hinton of work started.

Miss Mae Pogue, president of the Mayfield Homemakers Club, reported the removal of an old gate and the naming of their farm "Grand View." Mrs. Anna Loomer chose "The Cedar" as the name of her farm; Mrs. Ernest Stearns, "The Oaks." Mrs. W. S. Talley, "Mason's Edge." Mrs. J. Kackler, "Edge Water Farm," and Mrs. J. M. Hildreth, "Rolling Meadows."

Jefferson County has approximately 1,500 club members on its rolls this year. There are about 73,000 in Kentucky.

CABBAGE, CAULIFLOWER, BROCCOLI

Cabbage, cauliflower and broccoli resemble each other in that all are leaf crops, and so need rich soil, high in nitrogen. The soil can be made rich by side-dressing with a bushel of chicken manure to 300 feet of row or a pound of nitrate to 100 feet. They resemble each other, too, in the pests that attack them.

These are the green worms, the cabbage looper and the Harlequin bug. For the worm and the lice, there is no better control than rotenone, but most times lice may be prevented from giving trouble in the garden by dusting thoroughly the "frost-proof" plants before they are set. The Harlequin bug is the many-colored "hardshell" that usually comes only after the weather has become hot, and for this a special insecticide is needed—Sabadilla dust. The pest is a sucking insect. Sabadilla dust kills by contact and is more powerful than rotenone.

Cabbage, cauliflower and broccoli are set in the garden at about the same time, March 15. The rows should be 36 inches wide, and the row-spacing is 18 inches for cabbage; 30 inches for the other two. Their resemblance ends, and now for their differences.

Cabbage: Varieties are Golden Acre and Copenhagen Market, both roundheads, that suffer less from worms than the pointed sorts. In gardens where cabbage has repeatedly failed because of the Yellow disease, the resistant sorts, Marion Market or Wisconsin All-Seasons, should be used.

Cauliflower: The best variety is Snowball, a quick sort that can mature before the weather becomes warm. It should be harvested while the bud is still firm and close; once it "branches," it tends to become strong in flavor. To keep the "flower" from sunburning and taking on color, it should be shaded with a "tent" made of fine gauze or leaves pinned together over it with a toothpick or a twig. This should done with the first sign of the flower forming.

Broccoli: The variety is Calabrian Green Sprouting. The edible parts are the bud-clusters, which before the blossoms open. Broccoli can be made to yield two crops, an early one and a late one, provided the green worms while broccoli supends because of hot weather.

WITH THE COUNTY 4-H CLUBS

The Greenwood 4-H Club held its regular meeting March 3.

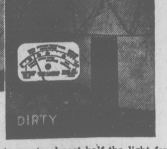

Mr. Brown and Miss Ward were present and discussed projects with Mrs. Glenn Clay, our Assistant 4-H Club Director, who also present, and is going to late members that have entered cattle projects.—Patty Napier, Reporter.

HIGH VIEW

The regular meeting of the High View 4-H Club was held March 4. Devotional period was also present, and is going to late members that have entered cattle projects.—Patty Napier, Reporter.

A special song was sung by three members of the club, Margie Conn, Bobby Conn and Patty Conn. Roll Call—twelve girls and fourteen boys present. The monthly program was given by club members.

Mr. Brown introduced the new member of the Agricultural Association.

The American Way

TRY KINDNESS

By Dr. Norman Vincent Pease

EDITOR'S NOTE: Dr. Pease is minister of history of the Marble Collegiate Church on Fifth Ave., New York City.

We have become so accustomed today in looking for problems that we fail to realize that usually the answer lies in simple techniques. There are some old basic laws that will gain results where most of our ultra-ratio formulas will fail. One of these is the principle of simple living.

Why not try it? It will work wonders.

In the city of Boston there is a famous florist, Henry Penn, who was at one time President of the American Association of Florists.

He tells me he is a florist because he loves flowers and he loves people. He added that other strangers, merely being around flowers, open up and tell him the innermost thoughts of their lives.

But it is not what other people get from flowers that means so much to him as what he gets himself.

One day he was near the door of his establishment when two boys and a girl entered. They were ragged children but their faces and hands were clean. One boy was clutching something in his fist. He said, "Mister we would like to get some yellow flowers, open up and tell him the innermost thoughts of their lives."

Mr. Penn said, "Here are some spring flowers, would you like them?"

The boy looked at him and said, "No, we would like some better than these. We have a yellow flower that we have to yellow."

"Yes, they must be yellow because we are getting them for Mickey. He always wears a yellow sweater; he kind of liked yellow, I guess they like Mickey's funeral."

"Yes we would like to get some yellow roses. Something like those," he said pointing to some in the case.

"I'll tell you about Mickey, what happened to him?"

"Mickey was killed by a truck down our block. We all thought a lot of Mickey so we have taken a collection from the kids in our street and we got cents and would like to get some flowers for him."

"Do you like those roses?" Mr. Penn asked.

The committee looked at the tall stalky roses in the glass case and said they would be wonderful.

"Well, I am offering a special on those yellow roses today for 18 cents a dozen. Give me the address and I will send them."

"No we wouldn't take them to Mickey ourselves, he would like it better that way."

He placed the yellow roses in their hands, they went out the door, representing a clear loss to several dollars, but said he, "A clear gain in love of ecstasy in my heart that lived with me."

Try kindness—it will work wonders on your own system, and it will do the same thing in your relations with other people. It is safe to say that there is nothing to which people will so respond as kindness. It is true that some will take longer to thaw out than others, but as I reflect back over my own experience I do not recall ever meeting a man who ultimately did not yield to the continual and persistent application of the kindly spirit. This is so true that for my part I have often wondered why people do not more generally practice the principle of kindness.

The Ridgewood Homemakers met March 7, at the home of Mrs. S. W. Day, 3939 Grandview. Miss Nell Hamon and Mrs. Willis will be hostesses. The lesson on Home Furnishings will be taught by Mrs. Peter Matheson and Mrs. T. H. Hollinshead.

Increase Of Livestock On Kentucky Farms

Numbers of cattle, hogs and sheep on Kentucky farms all increased slightly during the past year. Horses and mules are fewer, however, continuing the decline that began in 1941, while numbers of chickens on farms remain about the same as a year ago.

For January 1, 1948, cattle and calves were estimated at 1,292,000 head in comparison with 1,502,000 head for the state on January 1, 1947, and the ten year (1937-46) average of 1,328,000.

Milk cow numbers (cows and heifers 2 years old and over) at 616,000 this January were 1 percent below a year earlier but 3 percent above the 1937-46 average. The estimated 1,469,000 head of hogs in Kentucky on January 1, 1948 compared with 1,414,000 head for January 1, 1947 and the 10-year average of 1,406,000.

Bardstown Road News

By Mrs. Fielden Frederick

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Newburg Church met all day Thursday in the home of Mrs. Henry Lee Kattman in the Shepherdsville Road. A delightful fried chicken dinner was served in the spacious dining room, after which the ladies went into the living room, cheerful with open fireplace, where the meeting was conducted.

The program, "Home Missions in Our Country," was in charge of Mrs. Orville Stevens, in which all present took part. Plans were made to take a spiritual message and serve a warm dinner next month to a group of 50 aged men and women in Louisville, where some church taxes charge each week. The meeting closed with the song "Gospel Shall Reign" and the Mizpah.

Those present were Mesdames William F. Alexander, A. H. Gallbreath, Julius Hart, Fred Krueger, Walter B. Isaacs, Wilfred Kraybill, Orville Stevens, Henry Lentz, H. L. Kattman and Felda Frederick.

Bro. Wayne Spangler used as the subject of his sermon "Winning by the Enemies Fires," for Sunday morning. Eighty-six were present in Sunday School and the auditorium almost filled to capacity for church services. Singing was good, led by song leader Richard Boyd of South Louisville. "In the Garden" was sung by a quartette of young ladies, Misses Marjorie Kaiser, Carolyn Hart, Marilyn Schwartz and Ruth Jean Wolfe, which was beautifully rendered. A group of one hundred is hoped to be reached for Easter Sunday.

Mrs. Grace Ellis has been on the sick list and was absent from the school room at Park Creek last week. Mrs. Elizabeth Ellis is back again this week at Melbourne Heights, after a week's illness.

Mrs. and Mrs. Homer Thomas spent the week end with relatives near Bardstown, Ky.

Mrs. and Mrs. Fielden Frederick had as guests at dinner on Sunday morning Mrs. and Mrs. Orville Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cook, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Shobe and Michael, Mrs. J. H. Shively and Mrs. Algia Baird.

By Mrs. J. A. Lashbrook

Our hearts were gladdened Sunday to have Miss Virginia Graham back with us again. She sure looks well and still wears the same smile she always used to have.

We missed Miss Maud Zetzel, who was in the hospital. She was operated on, to correct, think two weeks ago, but she is now home. Her reports she has been very sick. May have a speedy recovery is our wish.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Ziegler and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Martin and daughter, Patricia, left Friday, March 12, for a trip to the south. They expected to spend Sunday in Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Bryant spent Sunday with relatives in Louisville. His brother Roy still continues very sick. They have very little hope for his recovery, which is sad indeed.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jones and little son, Henry, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Braudens.

Mr. and Mrs. J. U. Whitaker and son, James, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. David Whitaker of Bowling Green.

Glad to report William Miller is home from his week end at Nichols Hospital. We wish for him a complete recovery and a speedy one.

We are sorry to give up our good neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Snider but as the saying is "Heaven has a better plan for them." Mr. and Mrs. Jim Brown of Louisville are planning on moving to the farm April 1.

Hope Mr. Brown's health will be much improved, as he has been in the hospital for some time.

Cedar Creek Road

Miss Lucy Gibson

It probably will not come as a surprise to friends of a popular young couple who were married at wedding bells will be ringing for Miss Carolyn Shaker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shaker, and Mr. Marion Fisher on March 27. It will be a church wedding, at Bushy Run, Kentucky. There will be no formal invitations issued and friends are invited to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Weatherford will entertain at a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Shaker the evening of March 19.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Ziegler and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Martin and daughter, Patricia, left Friday, March 12, for a trip to the south. They expected to spend Sunday in Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Bryant spent Sunday with relatives in Louisville. His brother Roy still continues very sick. They have very little hope for his recovery, which is sad indeed.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jones and little son, Henry, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Braudens.

Mr. and Mrs. J. U. Whitaker and son, James, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. David Whitaker of Bowling Green.

Glad to report William Miller is home from his week end at Nichols Hospital. We wish for him a complete recovery and a speedy one.

We are sorry to give up our good neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Snider but as the saying is "Heaven has a better plan for them." Mr. and Mrs. Jim Brown of Louisville are planning on moving to the farm April 1.

Hope Mr. Brown's health will be much improved, as he has been in the hospital for some time.
